

ARLIS/NW
1999 Annual Meeting
Nov. 12-13, 1999
University of Washington and Seattle Art Museum

Program:

Cost: US$8.00 (CDN$10.00) payable at the door

Friday, Nov. 12

1:00 - 1:30 registration, socializing and coffee in the University of Washington Art Library

1:30-2:30 Tour of the art library and the art slide library

2:30-3:00 walk across campus to Suzzallo/Allen Libraries, perhaps with a quick peek at the cathedral-inspired Suzzallo Reading Room on the 2nd floor

A 1927 article in the Pacific Builder and Engineer stated that "this room has been pronounced by experts to be the most beautiful on the continent and is ranked among the most beautiful in the world".

It is a majestic room with a vaulted ceiling, elaborately decorated with colored and gilded stencilling and oak bookcases with hand carved friezes of native Wahsington State plants.

3:00 - 4:00 ARLIS NW chapter business meeting. Location: Suzzallo Library, 5th floor, east conference room

4:00 - 5:00 tour of the architecture library or, for those interested, a visit to the Henry Art Gallery

5:00 - 6:30 free time

6:30 - dutch treat dinner at a local restaurant

Saturday, Nov. 13

10:45 meet at the Seattle Art Museum for a guided tour of the exhibit "An American century of photography; from dry-plate to digital, the Hallmark photographic collection".

We are very fortunate to have both a curatorial colleague from SAM to guide us through the exhibit and also a special guest along: Tom Harris, photography instructor at the Art Institute of Seattle and recipient of a 1996 Guggenheim fellowship.

The program ends officially after the tour, so if you're from out of town, you will have an afternoon to explore downtown Seattle.
