

Are you a professional or student who is interested in art librarianship or visual resources management?

Join us for this free event on Thursday, February 11th!

The Art Libraries Society of North America's Northwest Chapter is holding its first Tri-City Open House. This mixer is a simultaneous event happening in Portland, Seattle, and Vancouver on Thursday, February 11th to help introduce our communities to the organization and our chapter.

University of Oregon, Portland
Library & Learning Commons

70 NW Couch St
Portland, OR 97209
5:00-7:00pm

Host: Bronwyn Dorhofer, Access Services & Outreach Librarian, University of Oregon, Portland

Dorothy Stimson Bullitt Library
Seattle Art Museum

1300 First Avenue
Seattle, WA 98101
4:00-6:00pm

Hosts: Traci Timmons, Librarian, Seattle Art Museum and Alan Michelson, Head, Built Environments Library, University of Washington

Irving K. Barber Learning Centre
Music, Art and Architecture
University of British Columbia Library

1961 East Mall
Chilcotin Room, IKBLC 256
4:00-6:00pm

Host: D. Vanessa Kam, Head Librarian, Music, Art and Architecture, University of British Columbia Library

Each city's event is different and may include art activities, raffles, presentations, and/or tours. Refreshments will be included at all three sites.

ARLIS/NA + VRA
3RD JOINT CONFERENCE 2016 | SEATTLE

This exciting, multi-city event is generously supported by ARLIS/NA through a special projects grant.